Scot Tour 2021 (2022), Itinerary and Daily Report

Follow the Scottish Women as they post pictures and information about their adventures. They will be updating their website daily. It also includes pages with the teams, the itinerary with descriptions of the day's planned activities, and a map of their route. The US couriers escorting the Scots will also be posting pictures and information daily on this website. Visit both sites often to see what's new.

Monday, October 17

The Scots arrive today for the US Scot Curling Tour.

Join us online and check out the scores, the candid shots, and most of all, the friendly competition!! The Scots and USWCA are providing daily blog postings... so be sure to catch the various action shots, "Courier analyses" with storytelling, and mini interviews to compliment the commentary!!

Come and cheer on the Scots and the US women when the games are at or near your local curling clubs. This RCCC Lady Scots and USWCA women have enjoyed this tour exchange since the 1950s. Wow.... that is 72 years of great curling and camaraderie.

Tuesday, October 18

Sightseeing in both the morning and afternoon provided the Scots with a visit to the 7Vines Winery..... great tasting and getting to know more about cooler weather vines in Minnesota!

2022 Scot Tour Opening Banquet

Scottish women entertaining the crowd: Singing and a Skit

Thursday, October 20

St. Paul began the day a super great game after Opening Ceremonies!

Each club identifies a Flag bearer per game as does the Scot women... what a great way to honor our countries in such a wonderful sport.

Off we go to Curl at Four Seasons..... nothing but great hospitality here!

At the Four Seasons Curling Club everyone had a great time. Meeting new friends and enjoying the great curling ice was nothing but spectacular.

Paying the Piper!

Best Ever Denver Greeting----- Art work by a Denver Curler

With beautiful colors in Aspen trees and a display of Colorado beauty the Scots arrived in Denver and visited various spots ending with the Denver Curling Club members greeting the Scottish women and whisking them off to Home Hosts.

Saturday, October 22

Early off to sight see at Garden of the Gods (GoG) and the Olympic & ParaOlympic Center.

Lunch the Golden Bee was great on the patio as the weather was wonderful!!

And then a visit to the Olympic & ParaOlympic Center reminded us of how much dedication is involved with our Olympians.

Great views of the gymnastics gym... we are still amazed at the springs in the mat that assist athletes in their programs.

Sunday, October 23

Curling in a great facility..... Denver and their members are super awesome!! Concentration is dedication.

Monday, October 24

Curling, curling, and more good curling!

Tuesday, October 25

Quick stop by Buffalo Bill's and gorgeous views!

Wednesday, October 26

Flight from Denver then a long bus ride to Wausau..... not easily done even for the most hearty!!

Thursday, October 27

Hello Wausau--- the Scots are rested and ready to curl.

Two of our favorite ladies who are past Scot Tour Sisters.

Great Fun and tons of laughter in Wausau.
